

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Wanted in Camden to answer a charge of highway robbery. Kelso Benson, colored, is under arrest in Philadelphia awaiting requisition.

 Upsetting a bowl of hot soup, 22-months-old Esther Greenberg, of 223 Chestnut street, was badly scalded about the face and neck. She is in Cooper Hospital.

 Halted by Policeman Appley because no headlight was carried, a Sixth and Eighth streets trolley car was not permitted to resume its journey until lanterns borrowed from the firemen at the Kaighn avenue engine house were attached to the front.

 Injuries to both knees and internal parts were sustained by Mrs. Mary Corson, aged 73 years, in a fall down stairs at her home, 904 Mt. Ephraim avenue.

 Found unconscious at Third and State streets, after being stricken with heart failure, Frederick Poole, aged 40 years, of Hartford, Conn. is in Cooper Hospital in a serious condition.
