

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Sheriff Somers yesterday seized the saloon of Joseph Taylor, of 1011 Broadway, on the foreclosure of a mortgage of $1800, held by William Moore, of 550 Federal street.

 Policeman Appley yesterday killed a mad dog at Seventh street and Kaighn avenue.

 Harry Marks was held in $300 bail by Recorder Stackhouse yesterday, on a charge of keeping a vicious dog.

 William F. Harris, of 1700 South Fourth street, was run into by an unknown bicyclist, at Broadway and Ferry avenue, yesterday, and badly bruised and lacerated.

 The Camden County District Medical Society, at its annual meeting yesterday, adopted a resolution urging Congress to enact the pending pure drug bill. Another resolution, asking that a department of public health be established, with a representative in the Cabinet, was adopted. Dr. Joel W. Fithian was elected president.
