

OVER IN CAMDEN.

* The Fleece Underwear Company was incorporated yesterday with $50,000 capital.

* The Camden branches of the Iron Hall have combined in securing Lawyer Samuel H. Grey to defend their interests.

* George S. Hunt, a member of the Police Department, who has been ill for months with consumption, died yesterday.

* A big bar of iron fell on Jerry McNery, of 3 Nagle's avenue, Philadelphia, while he was unloading a vessel, and crushed his foot. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital.

* Fireman Edward Weston, who was recently badly injured, was taken suddenly ill at No. 2 engine house last night, and had to be removed to his home in a patrol wagon.

* Thomas S. Armstrong, a Philadelphia paper-bag manufacturer, while jumping from a trolley car in front of his residence, 718 Market street, yesterday afternoon, fell and broke a leg.

* William Jones, a Georgia negro, who was hired by Captain John Seinge to help on the schooner Sarah Louise, at Cooper's Point, was arrested yesterday for stealing the captain's clothing and $13 in money.

* While coupling cars at Winslow, yesterday, William Simpson, a West Jersey Railroad brakeman, had several ribs fractured and was seriously injured internally. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital, Camden.