

JUDGE FRENCH SWORN IN

Succeeds Samuel Jones on District Court Bench

Sworn in yesterday as District Court judge of Camden, to succeed Samuel P. Jones, Attorney William C. French was presented with a big floral horseshoe by the Sixth Ward Democratic Club, the presentation speech being made by County Detective Cheese-man. Many members of the bar witnessed the administering of the oath by Deputy Clerk Truax, and on behalf of the assembled lawyers a congratulatory address was made by William J. Kraft.

After making a fitting response, Judge French appointed Frank S. Deveraux sergeant-at-arms to succeed Fred Voight, resigned.
