

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Former Judge Richard T. Miller, who has been seriously ill for several months, has so far recovered that he will be taken to Cape May tomorrow for the summer.

 Surrogate Reeves yesterday admitted to probate the will of Henry L. Ferris, of Rosedale. The executor is Wilbur R. Tilton, of Hammonton.

 Articles incorporating the Camden City Fire Department Pension Fund were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The trustees named are Henry G. Grosscup, George F. Cox, Walter Browning, John A. Stockton and Samuel S. Elfreth. The latter is chief of the Camden Fire Department.

 While William Bade, alias "Tin Can Billy," of 1896 Mulford street, was driving down Broadway yesterday, a wheel came off his wagon and he was thrown headlong into the street. He was taken to Cooper Hospital.

 The public schools will close for the summer season on Friday, June 21.

 With one eye nearly gouged out and his face terribly lacerated, James Smith, aged 32 years, of Chester, Pa., was sent to jail by Recorder Stackhouse yesterday, pending an investigation. Smith was found unconscious near Kaighn's Point ferry. When arraigned he said he did not know how he was hurt.