

Late Events as Told by Our Correspondent.

Parties from Salem are talking of purchasing O. O. Newcomb's grist mill.

H. B. Garrison spent yesterday in Philadelphia.

The debris is being cleared away from the cellar of the burned hall and the work of building will begin some time soon.

Elliot J. Law, of Cramer Hill, was in town yesterday on business.

Miss Eva Page of Newport, has been visiting friends here.

Mrs. Clara Mulford will open an ice cream parlor to-night at her home on Main street.

Mrs. Ann McChesney has been spending a few days in Fairton.

Walter Kain, former tonsorial artist of this place, was in town yesterday.

It is said that a Bridgeton contractor will build the new hall.

The boys have a toboggan slide in the woods at the edge of the pond.

Jersey's New Fish Wardens.

The State Game and Fish Commission has appointed the following wardens; Atlantic county, Henry Schneider and Louis H. Barrett; Bergen county, George Ricardo; Camden county, William Guthridge and James Hunt; Cape May county, Gustavus Hilton; Essex county, John R. Riley; Gloucester county, Benjamin F. Denton and Charles B. Platt; Hunterdon county, George W. Dunham; Middlesex county, Joseph Tucker, Jr.; Ocean county, Clayton Robbins; Passaic county, Charles A. Shriner; Sussex county, Jacob Hendershott; Salem county, Samuel H. Callahan; Somerset county, George H. Stone; Warren county; Edwin Hill.

MAURICETOWN.

Mr. G. D. Fagans, of Port Norris, formerly a resident of Mauricetown, was buried at Haleyville yesterday. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Downs, of Millville, a former pastor of the M. E. Church here.

Mrs. Mary A. Garrison, daughter of the late Lydia A. Huff, will be buried in Philadelphia to-day. She was 88 years old.

Douglas Haley has moved into Mrs. Weaver's house on High street. Capt. S. Whildon will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Haley.

Austria Silks.

1yd. wide, suitable for suits and shirt waists, only 40c.

4 19 2t Mrs. H. L. DOUGLAS,

If you want an instantaneous cure for headache, something free from deleterious