

CAMDEN COUNTY NEWS.

William Deacon and John McGinley were held in $500 bail by Magistrate Young, yesterday on the charge of being connected with the Dugan robbery.

There is war among the officials of Camden over the question as to who shall act as committing magistrate for the Police Court during Mayor Pratt's illness. Recorder Baker claims to be the proper person and quotes the law which says the Chief of Police should notify him of his Honor's illness. The Recorder says he will go to the City Hall to-day and assume the reins of the office.

The annual meeting of the Camden Excise Board was held last evening, when Thomas Harman, Republican, was elected president. One license was granted and three transferred. The following applicants were refused: John H. Green, No. 5 South Third street; Frederick Funk, Seventh and Cherry streets; Samuel Beaton, Sixth and Clinton streets; John Brothers, Second and Stevens streets.
