

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 John Warner, of 613 Clinton street, a brakeman on the Atlantic City Railroad, was squeezed between two cars at Kaighn's Point terminal yesterday. He was taken to Cooper Hospital. His condition is serious.

 Rev. Henry J. Zeller, pastor of the Union M. E. Church, will preach to-night on "The Open Door."

 John Nixon, aged 48 years, of 218 Senate street, had his right foot crushed at Woods' Iron Works yesterday.

 Daniel Willis, a boy, was arrested in Mt. Holly yesterday by Detective John Cherry and lodged in Camden jail, charged with stealing $31 from his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Souder, of 316 North Fourth street, Camden.

 The Democratic Executive Committee of Camden county met yesterday afternoon and fixed upon September 30 as the day to hold the city and county conventions. The primaries will be held September 12.

 Yesterday morning a man drove a pair of white horses on the tracks of the West Jersey and Seaboard Railroad, at the Jefferson avenue crossing, Camden, directly in front of a north-bound passenger train. The engineer applied the brakes and man and team escaped by about a foot. The driver whipped up the horses and disappeared.
