

OVER IN CAMDEN

Articles of incorporation were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by the Philadelphia Jewelry Company.

City Treasurer Felton will deliver the $75,000 issue of public park bonds, to E. D. Sheppard & Co. of Boston, to-day.

Mayor Westcott yesterday sentenced James Walker, a beggar, with a bogus-broken arm, to twenty days' imprisonment.

Judge Clymer yesterday transferred the retail liquor license of N. Frank Deputy, of Ellensburg, to Ralph V. W. Cooper.

James Foster was held in bail by Mayor Westcott yesterday, charged with striking James Taylor, colored, in the face with a beer glass.

A banquet will be given by the Camden Prohibition League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the Masonic Temple on March 25.

Sheriff Baird yesterday drew his first panel of jurors and the personnel is above the average. The jurors will serve during the April term of court.

Children playing with matches caused a slight fire yesterday at the house of John Leary, at 114 England place. A similar blaze was caused at the same place a few days ago by a dog upsetting a lamp.

The two ten-million gallon Holly pumps for the new artesian well water plant have been delivered at Delair and the work of placing them in position will be begun to-day.

William Huriburt was severely injured yesterday by falling in a pit at the Camden Iron Works. He was removed to his home at 415 Emerald street.