The Brotherhood of the Union opened its fiftieth annual session in Odd Fellows' Temple, yesterday, there being present over one hundred members of the Supreme Circle from five States of the Union and the District of Columbia. The business session, which was held in secret, was called to order at 10 A. M., and the Supreme Washington, Henry E. The circles are for males and the homes for females. One of each was formed in the District of Columbia during the past year. During his term of office he had traveled 8000 miles and visited 137 circles and homes. The Supreme Scroll Keeper, H. B. Walter, reported a total expenditure of $3643.85, balance of $1160, and the "total worth of circles and homes," $221,842.86. The Funeral Benefit Fund amounts to $102,909.62. Bowers, Past Supreme Washington and an employe of the Tax Office.

The proposed flag raising at the Boys' Central High School was postponed until Saturday. The Supreme Circle visited the tomb of the founder of the order, George Lippard, in Odd Fellows' Cemetery. Last evening they were entertained at a "Night in Bohemia" by the Kensington Circle, No. 14, at Columbia Hall. The election of ex-Chief of Police Dodd, of Camden, to be the Supreme Washington was announced yesterday to be a foregone conclusion. The installation services and entertainment will be held at the Academy of Music on Thursday evening, when George S. Graham will deliver an oration.
